

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES ARISING FROM eLA 2010

	Issue / Entity/ Opportunity	Action area
1	International Computing Driving License	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Centres to consider possibilities of offering the ICDL and becoming centres for ICDL • Possibilities of agreements to validate AADLC members to become ICDL certificate providers
2	eLearning Technology	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop competencies in schools and get paid in the process. • Create learning platforms and put on learning resources. • Explore viability of using SMART boards.
3	N-Computing Inc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explore possibilities of accessing the learning resources from N-computing.
4	ICWE/eLA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strengthen the already good collaboration and take a step higher including on how to make business deals with them. • Endeavour to present conference papers under the eLA to increase AADLC visibility.
5	United Nations Environmental Programme	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explore possibilities of training respective personnel of EPA and related agencies in 15 African countries working on environmental issues through GDLN. • Negotiate to provide facilities and coordination for EPA programmes.
6	Resources from Host Institutions (of DLCs)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Improve on institutional collaboration in learning resource provision. Bring out the mutual benefits that will accrue to the institution. (Use the example of Kenya, Uganda, and Tanzania).
7		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •
8		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •